On February 7, 1967, Mrs. Jennie Roberts, Secretary to the Dean, Hamilton College, Clinton, New York, advised that according to her office records, Doctor Laszlo Tarnoi of 173 Mallory Road, New Hartford, New York, had been a visiting Professor of Government at this school during the second term of the 1964-1965 academic year. She stated further that the records indicate that Doctor Tarnoi taught a full-credit course in Latin American History and Government beginning in February, 1965, which classes would have concluded around late May, 1965.

These records, according to Mrs. Roberts, indicated he had also been a visiting Lecturer in Philosophy and Government courses, and held informal meetings for study and contemporary political theory and the Introduction to the Philosophy of Law.

She noted that according to her records, Dean Winton Tolles of this school, then unavailable, had previously expressed satisfaction with Doctor Tarnoi's work and conduct while at this Institution.

Mrs. Roberts stated that she recalled Doctor Tarnoi favorably and remembered that he subsequently taught at Utica College of Syracuse University in Utica and perhaps at the Mohawk Valley Community College in the same city.

On February 7, 1967, inquiries at the office of Doctor Abe Judson, Director of the Division of Behavioral Studies, Utica College of Syracuse University, Utica, New York, disclosed that Doctor Tarnoi had taught Political Science and Ancient History courses in the evening division of the school during the academic year of 1965-1966. It was reported that his work had been entirely satisfactory, that he had also been affiliated with the Mohawk Valley Community College in Utica, New York, and that he apparently had left the area to accept other employment.
